

Screening, Assessment and Approval Roles and Responsibilities for all Non-Primary Caregiver Situations for Children and Youth In Care

	Foster caregiver in their role as a prudent parent	Social workers in their role as a delegated social worker under CFCSA
Child Minding (also referred to as Babysitting)	Selects and assesses their child minder guided by a checklist.	Provides support and advice as needed for the circumstances.
Child Care	Screens and selects the Child Care provider using the Parents' Guide to Selecting and Monitoring Child Care in BC . Consults with the child's social worker and resource social worker about their selection.	Completes screening via Criminal Record Checks and Prior Contact Checks on unlicensed child care providers.
Sleepovers	Using parental due diligence the caregiver checks out the sleepover arrangements and confirms the adults in the sleepover home or setting are providing a safe environment for the child or youth. For sleepovers as part of school, sport team or recreation events the caregiver confirms the supervising adults are providing a safe environment.	Child's social worker and resource social worker can provide consultation as needed for the circumstances.
Significant and Unsupervised Situations	Using parental due diligence ensures the safety of the child around casual visitors in home and when the child goes on "play dates." For youth the foster parent is aware of and discusses with the youth the safety and risk factors associated with friendships and youth activities. Parental due diligence is used for situations involving coaches, tutors, music teachers, etc., and are included in the child's Plan of Care.	Child's social worker and resource social worker can provide consultation as needed for the circumstances. Completes screening via Criminal Record Checks and Prior Contact Checks on the following people: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • adults or youth 18 years and over residing in the home where the child lives • adults or youth 18 years and over visiting/ staying overnight in the home where the child lives for more than 30 days. This is deemed as new adults or youth 18 years and over now residing in the home • adults or youth 18 years and over who are in an intimate partner relationship with the foster caregiver who regularly visit and/or stay in the home where the child resides

	Foster caregiver in their role as a prudent parent	Social workers in their role as a delegated social worker under CFCSA
Relief Caregivers	Use of approved foster caregivers or adoptive families as relief caregivers is preferred. When not possible the foster caregiver can select and assess their relief care provider using the Assessment Guide and Checklist provided.	Completes screening via Criminal Record Checks and Prior Contact Checks on the relief care provider being assessed by the foster caregiver. Foster caregiver and resource social worker consult throughout the selection, screening and assessment process to complete a joint approval process.

Summary of the Relief Care Provider Assessment Steps: (check off when completed)

1. Assessment discussions

Using the Assessment Guide Questions, document your discussions with the proposed Relief Care Providers

2. Awareness of foster caregiver's contractual obligations and required standards, policies and procedures

Inform the proposed Relief Care Provider of your obligations and responsibilities as outlined in the Foster Caregiver's written agreement with the Director (Family Care Home Agreement).

Provide the proposed Relief Care Provider with the following documents related to Standards, Policies and Procedures, discuss the content and answer questions directly or with advice from your resource social worker:

Foster Family Handbook

Standards for Foster Homes

In particular review the following Standards for Foster Homes and expected Caregiver Practices with the proposed Relief Care Provider and ask them to sign the section below acknowledging their agreement:

- A.1: Uphold CFCSA section 70, Rights of Children in Care
- B.2: Manage Reportable Incidents
- C.1.7: Maintain Confidentiality
- D.1: Practice Positive Parenting
- D.1.11: Follow MCFD Discipline Policy

3. Observing the environment of care

Foster Caregiver visits the proposed Relief Care Providers home (required in case the care is provided in the Relief Care Provider’s home and not in the Foster Caregiver’s home) to observe the Standards for Foster Parents - Environment of Care (E.1) requirements are met within the home, including fire and toxic fume safety, infant equipment as appropriate, safe sleeping arrangements for all ages, car safety equipment and safe storage of hazardous materials. Note date on which the environment of care check was completed.

Date: _____

Note: If you have any questions about how to assess the home environment and how to mitigate any gaps (such as sharing your infant equipment with the Relief Care Provider) discuss with your Resource Worker for further advice or ideas.

4. Child/youth views about proposed Relief Care Provider and ongoing experiences with Relief Care Providers

Foster Caregiver discusses plans for relief care with all children and youth placed in their home. Wherever possible it is best if children can meet proposed Relief Care Providers while the assessment and screening process is underway. This allows both parties to get a sense of each other and how well matched they are for a relief care situation. The Foster Caregiver seeks the child or youth’s views about the proposed Relief Caregiver. Once the relief care commences the Foster Caregiver seeks the child or youth’s view on an ongoing basis to confirm the child’s comfort level and their experience of the relationship with the Relief Care Provider.

5. Acknowledgements

As the proposed Relief Care Providers, I/we acknowledge the assessment steps have been completed and that I/we agree to the standards, policies and procedures indicated on this checklist.
